B. STATEMENT OF THE ISSUE ON APPEAL

Claimants-Appellants respectfully submit that the issues to be determined on this appeal are as follows:

In this case under the federal Securities Investor Protection Act, did the Bankruptcy Court err in approving the SIPC Trustee's denial of the customer claims of non-ERISA-plan investors in Bernard L. Madoff Investment Securities, an insolvent broker/dealer, by imposing the requirement, unstated in the statute, that an investor must have held an account with the insolvent broker/dealer "in its own name," when the claimants met the statutory definition of "customer" and entrusted their investment funds to the insolvent broker/dealer for investment through intermediaries that the SIPC Trustee acknowledges were the broker/dealer's conspirators, aiders and abettors, and therefore its partners?

Dated: New York, New York
July 26, 2011

Respectfully submitted,
